Re: CPRS/Case 3325002

Ms. Cravey,

You have insinuated that my statements concerning letters and phone calls are false, asserting that CPRS sent correspondence to me on three separate occasions and alleging that CPRS did not call my home at least a dozen times.

To begin with, I take offense to being referred to as a liar. I also find your statements suspicious and am certain the Circuit Court for the State of Oregon will agree.

Per the enclosed phone records, Certegy Payment Recovery Services, Inc. placed thirteen calls from the number 800.873.5869 to my home phone number of 503.282.1301.

As indicated in the enclosed email dated October 15, 2010 from Ms. Tanya Lawrence, Corporate Executive Management Assistant at the FedEx corporate office in Memphis, Tennessee, Claim # 91811483 for my check in the amount of $83.95 was referred to Certegy on May 28, 2010.

One has to wonder how CPRS could sent a letter on May 27 regarding an account that had not yet been assigned.

Due to these events as well as the fact that I received none of the correspondence allegedly mailed, I submit these letters were not mailed to me at all.

On June 1, CPRS called me for the first time. Their first violation of the FDCPA occurred five days later;

§ 809. Validation of debts

(a) Within five days after the initial communication with a consumer in connection with the collection of any debt, a debt collector shall, unless the following information is contained in the initial communication or the consumer has paid the debt, send the consumer a written notice containing—

- (1) the amount of the debt;
- (2) the name of the creditor to whom the debt is owed;
- (3) a statement that unless the consumer, within thirty days after receipt of the notice, disputes the validity of the debt, or any portion thereof, the debt will be assumed to be valid by the debt collector;
- (4) a statement that if the consumer notifies the debt collector in writing within the thirty-day period that the debt, or any portion thereof, is disputed, the debt collector will obtain verification of the debt or a copy of a judgment against the consumer and a copy of such verification or judgment will be mailed to the consumer by the debt collector; and

(5) a statement that, upon the consumer's written request within the thirty-day period, the debt collector will provide the consumer with the name and address of the original creditor, if different from the current creditor.

On June 9, I sent the enclosed email requesting that CPRS cease from contacting me by phone until I received documentation.

CPRS proceeded to call me six times between June 10 and June 17, 2010. Their failure to provide the documentation requested as well as each subsequent phone call constitutes a violation of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act.

§ 809. Validation of debts

(b) If the consumer notifies the debt collector in writing within the thirty-day period described in subsection (a) that the debt, or any portion thereof, is disputed, or that the consumer requests the name and address of the original creditor the debt collector shall cease collection of the debt, or any disputed portion thereof, until the debt collector obtains verification of the debt or any copy of a judgment, or the name and address of the original creditor, and a copy of such verification or judgment, or name and address of the original creditor, is mailed to the consumer by the debt collector.

It is my contention there is sufficient evidence to prove that Certegy Payment Recovery Services, Inc is guilty of at least seven FDCPA violations.

The Circuit Court for the State of Oregon will also be asked to determine if allegations in your letter of September 21 constitute other violations.

I will provide one final opportunity to settle this matter prior to a lawsuit being filed against Certegy Payment Recovery Services, Inc.

I will accept a settlement in the amount of $3000.00 to be received no later than November 12, 2010.

If this sum is not received as stipulated above, a lawsuit will be filed for the entire amount due.

Hello Mr. Lakefish,

I have finally obtained the information you have requested concerning your 2 checks. They have been referred to Certegy Check Services. You may call their Customer Care at phone# 800-237-4851.

Your check for $47.57, which was written on 4/30/10 was referred on May 17th to Certegy. The claim#, which you will need when you call is 91796139.

Your check for #83.95, which was written on 5/7/10 was referred on May 28th to Certegy. The claim# for it is, 91811483.

I hope this information completes your query. Sorry for the delay

Certegy is now handling this matter, so any further queries you may have will need to be addressed with them. Our FedEx Office locations are no longer involved in this matter.

Best Regards, Tanya Lawrence, FedEx- Corp Exec Mgmt Assistant

Re: Certegy Payment Recovery Services, Inc. ("CPRS")

Dear Mr. Lakefish:

This letter is in response to your letter to CPRS dated September 13, 2010. You have repeatedly claimed that you have not received written notification concerning a debt owed to CPRS but that you have received at least one dozen telephone calls from CPRS.

Your statements are incorrect. CPRS sent you correspondence dated May 17, 2010 and May 27, 2010, addressed to the address set forth above, regarding two returned checks presented to Kinko's. Both letters advised that the returned checks had been referred to CPRS for collection. Additionally, after receipt of your email dated June 8, 2010, claiming that you were unaware of any correspondence sent by CPRS, two letters dated June 10, 2010, were again mailed to you at the address listed above (which address was provided by you). Copies of the letters and the returned checks are enclosed with this letter.

Accordingly, CPRS declines your settlement proposal as it did not violate the Fair Debt Collections Practice Act.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive ink that reads "Lynn V. Cravey". There is a short horizontal line underneath the signature.

Re: Case 3325002

Mr. Kennedy,

Although I have never received written notification concerning a debt owed to Certegy Payment Recovery Services, Inc., I have received at least one dozen telephone calls from your firm.

On June 9, 2010, your organization confirmed having received an email that requested a complete itemization of all charges pertaining to any alleged obligation.

The phone calls from Certegy Payment Recovery Services, Inc. continued despite my request.

On June 16, 2010, your organization received a certified letter once again requesting a complete itemization of all charges pertaining to any alleged obligation.

Due to the fact that Certegy Payment Recovery Services, Inc. failed to provide these materials, requested for the purpose of verifying the debt, they are in violation of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act.

In order to avoid legal proceedings against Certegy Payment Recovery Services, Inc. for said violation, please be advised that I will accept a settlement in the amount of $1000.00 to be received no later than September 30, 2010.

If this sum is not received as stipulated above, a lawsuit will be filed in the Circuit Court for the State of Oregon.

Sincerely,

Randall J. Lakefish

Re: Telephone Calls

Mr. Kennedy,

I continue to receive phone calls from your organization despite the fact that you have received my request for documentation pertaining to an alleged debt.

As Certegy Payment Recovery Services, Inc. has failed to provide verification of said debt, your telephone communications constitute an attempt to collect this debt and thus is in violation of Section 809, Paragraph 5b of the Fair Debt Collection Practice Act.

Therefore, I intend to initiate proceedings against Certegy Payment Recovery Services, Inc. and its representative.

Re: Telephone Calls

Mr. Kennedy,

As you have received my electronic correspondance, there is no need for me to call your organization.

I trust you will provide the documentation requested and cease from any further telephone calls until that information is provided.
